From Thursday 7 June 2018 the Department of Planning, Transport and Infrastructure in conjunction with Alexandrina Council and the Surveyor General are pleased to announce the new suburb of Chiton.

The area bordered by Hayborough and Port Elliot will now be known as the suburb of Chiton.

Please note the postcode will remain 5211.

Refer to the back cover for map.

Welcome to the South Coast's NEW suburb CHITON

Welcome to the newly named suburb of Chiton

If you live within the boundaries of the new suburb of Chiton, you may need to update some of your personal contacts. See our checklist on the following pages for suggested contacts.

Other location details such as council rates, Australia Post and emergency services will be updated by the State Government and your local council.

Why?

The naming of the new suburb Chiton will align residents and rate payers with their own community.

This will provide improved access for amenities such as post and emergency services, and a feeling of being better connected to Alexandrina Council.

Community consultation saw a vast majority of support for this change.

When?

The naming of the new suburban boundary of Chiton comes into effect from Thursday 7 June 2018.
